turkey - free xmas dinners 2017

join the turkeys voting for xmas at hillhead bookclub prepare to wet your festive whistle on craft beers, mulled cider, carafes of wine, gramophones filled with cocktails, our famous strawberry gin mojitos or even a fine upstanding pint of tennent's lager.

whatever floats your boozy boat, our bar guys can probably rustle up for you...and if you pulled the designated driver straw this year...then we've got everything from ginger beer to ice cream coke floats to keep you satisfied.

throw in some ping-pong, a room full of super mario, sonic the hedgehog plus other retro gaming delights and we reckon that even the bold st nick might stop in for a virgin strawberry mojito.

he is driving after all.

buffet options available for all party tastes and sizes

contact the team to discuss your party this year
